DAY 2: BANGKOK - FULL DAY HIGHLIGHTS TOUR OF BANGKOK

Morning, breakfast at hotel then meet our guide and driver for Experience Bangkok's highlights and history on a full-day tour through the heart of the city, first a visit to the Royal Grand Palace, the nation's landmark and most praised royal monument in Thailand, with the enclosed and dazzling Wat Phra Keo with its revered Emerald Buddha, the Golden Chedi, the Pantheon of the Chakri Kings and the Eight Colored Towers, is a must. In Thailand by many, it is a living example of classical Siamese Court, being the former residence of the kings of Thailand.

Wat Pho is also regarded as the first center of public education and is sometimes called 'Thailand's first university'. Mural paintings, inscriptions, and statues found in the temple-educated people on varied subjects such as literature, warfare, archaeology, astronomy, geology, meditation and to be considered, home of the Thai traditional massage. Here, you will enjoy a 30-minutes' Thai massage as an excellent break after a morning sightseeing (not included Massage fee).

Enjoy an afternoon trip along the bustling Chao Phraya River. A stop will be made at the “Temple of Dawn” (officially named Wat Arun). – it is one of the most spectacular and recognizable Thai landmarks. Idyllically situated amongst picturesque river scenes, capturing the stunning contrast with the surrounding modern cityscape.

Back to hotel for resting. Free enjoy the night.

Noted: Photography is permitted in the Royal Palace Grounds and in the compounds of the Emerald Buddha Temple, but not inside the buildings.

Dress code: Please dress respectfully by not wearing sleeveless, shorts or sandals, when visiting the Grand Palace and temple complex.

Tours on Sundays: The inner courts of Grand Palace are frequently closed on Sundays; we recommend not to book this excursion on Sundays to avoid disappointment.

Meal: Breakfast

DAY 3: BANGKOK - RAILWAY MARKET & DAMNOEN SADUAK FLOATING MARKET

Depart from Bangkok and head to Maeklong Railway Market, also known as Talad Rom Hoop. Upon arrival, the guide will introduce you to the history of this area. See the action in several minutes before the train passing through the market. The process happens so quick it will amaze you for the unique moment.

Then tour takes you to the rural yet world-famous floating market of Damnoen Saduak, situated around 100 kilometers west of Bangkok. It is generally known as Klong Ton Khem Floating Market or Damnoen Saduak Floating Market. Damnoen Saduak has officially three floating markets. A narrow canal flanked with food stalls and souvenir shops forms the principal market at Ton Kem. Farther south are the rarely visited markets at Her Kui and Khun Pitak. Photographers at Ton Kem will get their best shots from the bridge, which crosses over the canal, and from the produce shed on the right. Nowadays, the market is bustling with activity from very early in the morning until about 11.00 am.

You can taste at the traditional Thai's cuisine at the market by your own choice such as Tom-yum soup, Pad Thai Noodle, seasonal fruits , Thai sweets , coconut ice cream or juice from the boat vender pass by during tour. (Cost at your own)

Transfer back to Bangkok for relaxing.

Remark: Boat with maximum 6 pax per one (small boat only)

Meal: Breakfast

Overnight at hotel in Bangkok

DAY 4: BANGKOK – FLIGHT TO CHIANG RAI – GOLDEN TRIANGLE & LONG NECK WOMEN'S VILLAGE

After breakfast. Transfer by driver to Bangkok International airport for flight to Chiang Chai.

Arrival at Chiang Rai airport, meet our guide/driver then transfer to central. Towards to The Long Neck Woman's Village

Visit the Long Neck Tribe Village; the woman wears several brass rings around their long, slender necks. A woman generally has about twenty or more rings around her neck. They are originated from Shan state, The Union of Myanmar.

Explore their daily life, listen the stories about their culture. You can find beautiful handy craft souvenirs in here, all made by locals.

Heading to The Golden Triangle is the area where the borders of Thailand, Laos, and Myanmar meet at the confluence of the Ruak and Mekong rivers. The name "Golden Triangle"—coined by the CIA is commonly used more broadly to refer to an area of approximately 950,000 square kilometres (367,000 sqmi) that overlaps the mountains of the three adjacent countries. Witness the mighty of Mekong River and then experience boat riding on Mae Khong River for about 30-40mins.

Then further to The House of Opium Museum

House of Opium is a museum that tells stories of opium in the Golden Triangle. Through beautiful antiques such as opium harvesting knives, scales, weights, pipes, mats and pillows, these tools represent the beliefs, cultures, traditions, and magnificent imagination of their Burmese, Shan, Chinese and tribal inventors in Thailand as well as the history of the region where the three countries meet.

The museum reveals the biology of the opium poppy, the smoking procedure, trading procedure, and explores old murders and skirmishes which historians study today

Back to hotel for check in and resting.
